

Another Occurrence of alleged Age Discrimination

September 19, 2021

Skyler is roughly twenty years old and joined the store around four months ago. She has an excellent personality and is a good worker. I was the cashier in PRO this day and she arrived and began to close the other register. I asked if she was being groomed as a part time Head Cashier and she said yes, she was told this the day before.

So a twenty something with four months work experience is qualified more than a 69-year-old to act as a part time Head cashier.

Skyler is the youngest daughter of Shannon a long time associate in Flooring and her slightly older sister is Olivia another employee.

Appears to be a case of nepotism being used to discriminate on an age basis against me. Thanks.
